

COURSE OUTLINE – (FTT-CII-004)

FINEOS CUSTOMISATION II – ROUTING RULES

Overview

FINEOS Routing Rules is the mechanism that provides for the logical routing of tasks in accordance with business requirements. The Routing Rules include java code that is executed when new tasks are created. This course gives an overview of Routing Rules configuration and management and details the components of a FINEOS Routing Rule.

Objectives

To provide attendees with practical knowledge on writing Routing Rule code and configuring Routing Rule components using FINEOS Routing Rules Maintenance.

Who should attend?

Java developers involved in the technical development of the FINEOS Solution

Pre-requisites

Skills:

All attendees should be Java Developers with knowledge of J2EE

Courses:

FTB-F-004 – FINEOS GUI Usage – Front Office

FTT-CI-002 – FINEOS Customisation I – Front Office Data Model

Formats & Duration

Delivery	Tutor-Led Practical	Duration	½ Day
Description
The desired effect for participants on completion of this course is an acquisition of skills i.e. to 'KNOW' how to use a particular area of the FINEOS product. Participants are led through practical exercises relevant to the particular skills area directed and assisted by the tutor.

For further information, contact FINEOS Training Services:

 training.services@FINEOS.com  +353 (0)1 639 9700	 Training Services, FINEOS Corporation, Pembroke House, 8-10 Lwr Pembroke St, Dublin 2, Ireland
--	--