

Course Outline – (FTT-CI-005)

FINEOS Customisation I - Programming with FINEOS Business Objects

About This Course

This course provides an introduction to programming with FINEOS Business Objects.

Course Objectives

To provide attendees with an understanding of programming with FINEOS Business Objects, this includes Business Object Entities, Persistence, Locking, Class Extensions and Configuration.

Who Should Attend?

Java developers involved in the technical development of the FINEOS Solution

Pre-requisites

Skills:

All attendees should be Java Developers with knowledge of J2EE

Participants of this course must have previously completed the following FINEOS training modules:

FTT-CI-002 - FINEOS Customisation I - FINEOS Data Model

Summary Of Course Contents

Module	Description
Introduction to FINEOS	A high level introduction to the FINEOS framework, including
Framework	persistence, security, application architecture and service architecture.
Business Object Entities	An introduction to BOEs: BOE interface and classes, relationships and database mapping
Enums	Brief description of FINEOS Enums; How Enums are created and how Enums are stored in database.
Persistence	Introduction to FINEOS TA persistence service
Class Extensions	Introduction to Class Extensions: Goes through example of setting up
	XML files/entries for adding a new String attribute to OCPerson.
Configuration	Introduction to configuring the FINEOS application using XML files

Formats & Duration

Delivery	Tutor-Led Practical	Duration	1 Day
Description
The desired effect for participants on completion of this course is an acquisition of skills i.e. to 'KNOW' how to use a particular area of the FINEOS product. Participants are led through practical exercises relevant to the particular skills area directed and assisted by the tutor.

For further information, contact FINEOS Training Services:

□ TrainingAdmin@FINEOS.com	Training Services, FINEOS Corporation,
☎ +353 (0)1 639 9700	Pembroke House, 8-10 Lwr Pembroke St, Dublin 2,
	Ireland